II. Leave Policy

III. Dress Code Policy

I. Attendance Policy

IV. Health and Safety Policy

V. Internet and Email Use Policy

General Guidelines: Employees are expected to dress in business casual attire. Clothing should be clean, neat, and professional.

Prohibited Attire: Casual wear such as trousers, t-shirts, flip-flops, and shorts are prohibited.

Vacation Leave: Employees are entitled to 24 days of paid vacation leave per year. Leave requests must be submitted at least one week in advance.

Leaves in Probation Period or Internship: No paid leave will be granted during the internship and probation period.

Unapproved Leaves: Unapproved leave will result in a deduction of twice the leave days.

Workplace Safety: Employees must adhere to all safety regulations and immediately report unsafe conditions.

Emergency Procedures: Employees should be familiar with emergency exits and procedures. They will be taught these in orientation, and regular drills will be conducted.

Working Hours: Employees are expected to work in designated working hours.

Breaks: Employees are entitled to a 1-hour lunch break and two 15-minute breaks (one in each half).

Absence Reporting: Employees must inform their Manager or CEO of any absence at least 1 hour before the start of the workday.

Punctuality: Employees must be punctual and arrive on time for work. Repeated Lateness will result in disciplinary action.

Lateness: If the Employee is more than 10 minutes late, he must compensate with double the time. Lateness exceeding 30 minutes will be marked as a half-day, and Lateness exceeding 60 minutes will result in an absence.

Half Day: Working Half a day during the probation period will result in a salary reduction. After the probation period, it will be considered as half leave.

Usage: Company internet and email systems are to be used only for the company's work purposes. Personal use is prohibited.

Security: Employees must not download unauthorized software or visit non-work-related websites.

VIII. Resignation Policy

VII. Anti-Harassment Policy

Punctuality: Frequent lateness (more than two days) or any absences in a month will result in a warning. Three warnings will result in automatic Termination.

Poor Performance: The Employee will receive a warning letter for poor performance, rude behavior, unpunctuality, or excessive absences. Upon receiving the third warning letter, the Employee will be terminated.

Disobeying code of conduct: Any disobeying or unfollowing the code of conduct will result in Termination, and legal action will be taken against the Employee.

Harassment: TechXaro has a zero-tolerance policy against Harassment and bullying. If an employee is harassed or bullied, TechXaro will terminate the Employee immediately and report such incidents to the legal department.

Data privacy: Failure to comply with TechXaro's data privacy policy will result in immediate Termination of employment. Additionally, legal action will be pursued against the Employee for any breach of data privacy that compromises TechXaro's business, clients, or legal matters.

Business deals: Engaging in unauthorized business deals with clients or colleagues will result in immediate Termination of employment. Legal action will be taken against the Employee for any unauthorized transactions that harm the business interests or reputation of TechXaro.

Notice Period: Employees must serve a 7-10 days notice period during the Trial Period and two-week (14 days) notice period during the probation and internship period before their resignation becomes effective. After completing the probation period, a one-month (30 days) notice period is required to ensure a smooth transition and proper handover of responsibilities.

Zero Tolerance: TechXaro has a zero-tolerance policy towards Harassment. Any form of Harassment, including sexual, racial, bullying, or verbal, will not be tolerated.

Reporting: Employees should report any harassment incidents to HR immediately. All reports will be investigated promptly and confidentially.

IX. Termination Policy

Message Acknowledgment: All team members, including employees and interns, are expected to acknowledge work-related messages received outside regular working hours promptly and take action at the commencement of the next working day without necessitating repeated follow-ups from management or colleagues.

Urgent Matters: In the event of an urgent task communicated outside working hours, the concerned team member is expected to address it promptly. If unavailable, the matter must be escalated to the respective Team Leader or Manager without delay.

Additional Hours: This policy does not impose any obligation to work beyond contracted office hours. It solely governs professional communication, conduct, and acknowledgment of responsibilities when contacted outside working hours.

Non-Compliance: Failure to adhere to this policy will be reflected in performance evaluations, assessments, and career progression decisions and will be treated as a breach of professional conduct.

VI. Beyond Office Hours Policy

2- Code Of Conduct

I. Office Environment

Professionalism: Employees must maintain professionalism in all interactions. This includes being punctual, respectful, and adhering to company policies.

Integrity: Employees must act with integrity, ensuring honesty and transparency in all work dealings.

Confidentiality: Employees must protect the confidentiality of company and client information.

Conflict of Interest: Employees must disclose any potential conflicts of interest to the Company's management.

Non-Discrimination: TechXaro is committed to providing a workplace free of discrimination. All employees must be treated respectfully, regardless of race, gender, religion, or other characteristics.

Accountability: Employees are responsible for their actions and must report any unethical behaviour or policy violations to management.

II. Data Privacy

Confidentiality: Employees must not disclose any confidential information related to TechXaro's business, clients, or legal matters to anyone for any reason, both within and outside the Company.

Data Handling: Employees must handle all data responsibly, ensuring it is stored securely, shared only with authorized personnel, and protected from unauthorized access.

Data Breach: Any suspected or actual data breach must be reported immediately to the management.

III. Business Deals

Conflict of Interest: Employees must avoid any activities or relationships that may create a conflict of interest with TechXaro's business.

Unauthorized Deals: During employment and for 3 years thereafter, the Employee shall not engage in professional dealings with or solicit business from the Employer's clients or employees who were retained by the Employer within the last 36 months, or work with its employees/interns.

I. Onboarding Procedure

Welcome Orientation: New employees will attend a welcome orientation on their first day.

Documentation: New employees must complete all required forms.

Training: New employees will receive training on company policies, procedures, and their specific job functions.

3- Procedures

II. Performance Review Procedure

Schedule Reviews: Performance reviews will be conducted semi-annually.

IV. Emergency Procedure

III. Expense Reimbursement Procedure

Evacuation Plan: Employees must familiarize themselves with the office evacuation plan.

Drills: Regular fire and emergency drills will be conducted.

First Aid: A kit is available in the office; employees should know its location.

Review Process: Managers will evaluate employees on key performance metrics and provide feedback.

Goal Setting: Employees and Managers will set goals for the next review period.

Submission: Employees must submit expense reports within 30 days of incurring an expense.

Documentation: Receipts and a description of the business purpose must be included.

Approval: Managers will review and approve expense reports before reimbursement.

Allowance: A monthly medical allowance of PKR 3,000 is available to all eligible employees.

Eligible Expenses: Employees may submit medical bills for themselves, their spouse, children, and parents.

Submission Process: Employees must submit valid medical bills to HR for reimbursement. The date on the medical bill must fall within the current salary month to be processed with that month's salary. Bills dated in a previous month will not be considered or processed under any circumstances.

Documentation Requirements: To ensure authenticity and compliance, all submitted medical bills must meet the following criteria:

Bills must be computerized/printed — handwritten slips will not be accepted.

Bills must carry a QR code and the medical facility's NTN (National Tax Number) for verification purposes.

A valid doctor's prescription must be attached along with the bill, clearly mentioning the patient's name, diagnosis, and prescribed medication or treatment.

Bills without any of the above will be considered incomplete and will not be processed for reimbursement.

Probation Requirement: Eligibility for the medical allowance begins only after the successful completion of the probation period.

Notice Period: Employees serving their notice period are not eligible for medical allowance.

Important Note: The company reserves the right to reject any bill that appears invalid, unverifiable, or that does not meet the documentation standards outlined above.

VI. Provident Fund Procedure

Contribution: The company will deduct 10% from the employee's salary, and an additional 10% will be contributed by the company.

Investment: The total fund will be invested in mutual funds for potential returns.

V. Medical Allowance Procedure

VII. Salary Procedure

Salary Calculation: Salaries are based on the number of working days in the month (Monday to Saturday).

Notice Period Resignation: If an employee resigns within the notice period, only their 10% contribution (deducted from salary) will be provided.

Resignation within 6 Months: If an employee leaves within 6 months of the hiring date, they will receive their 10% contribution along with any accrued commission on it.

Resignation after 1 year: Employees who leave after 1 year will receive the entire amount, including their 10% contribution, the company's 10%, and any returns on the investment.

Termination: Employees who are terminated will not receive any amount from the provident fund.

Withdrawal Conditions:

Daily Rate = Monthly Salary ÷ Total Working Days in the month.

Hourly Rate = Daily Rate ÷ Standard Working Hours.

Employees are paid for the days they work. Absenteeism without approval results in deductions based on the daily rate.

Any extra working hours, work performed on off-days (weekends), public holidays, or additional approved working days shall be compensated separately, subject to prior approval from management.

Overtime Compensation= Hourly Rate × Approved Overtime Hours

Additional Day Compensation= Daily Rate × Number of Additional Working Days

Such compensation shall be added to the monthly salary and paid along with the regular payroll cycle.

A 10% Provident Fund (PF) deduction is applied to the net salary.

Any approved reimbursements or medical allowances are added to the net payable amount.

Net Salary = (Salary for Worked Days + Additional Working Day Compensation + Approved Overtime/Additional Work Compensation) – PF Deduction + Reimbursements/Allowances.

By adhering to these policies, procedures, and codes of conduct, we can ensure a productive, safe, and respectful workplace for all. TechXaro Pvt Ltd is committed to upholding these standards and supporting our employees' professional growth and success. Should you have any questions or need further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact your Manager, CEO, or the management team.

Thank you for your cooperation and commitment to excellence.

This document has been approved by the management of TechXaro Pvt Ltd and is effective as of June 30, 2024.

Disbursement Timeline: Salaries for the previous month are transferred between the 5th and 10th of the following month. Payments are made via bank transfer.

Leave Deductions: Approved paid leaves do not affect salary. Unpaid or unapproved absences are deducted based on the daily rate.
